

How do you feel?

Describing Feelings and Things

小5～中高 (Grade 5-High School)

M4

L14 How do you feel?

Today, we'll learn how to use words that end in -ED and -ING.

-ED Words

These adjectives can be used to describe feelings.

Examples:

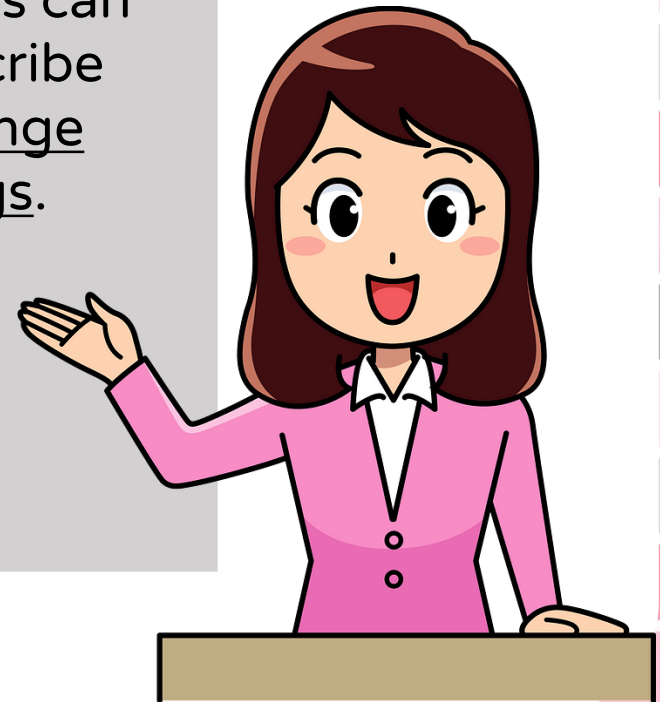

- bored
- tired
- excited

-ING Words

These adjectives can be used to describe things that change people's feelings.

Examples:

- boring
- tiring
- exciting

-ED Words

used to describe feelings

-ING Words

used to describe things that change people's feelings

I feel so confused. This exam is confusing.

I have so much homework today! My homework is tiring. It makes me feel tired.

The magician was amazing! I was amazed by his tricks.

Football is exciting! I'm excited to see the next game.

The beach is a relaxing place. I feel relaxed when I am there.

We can add -ED and -ING to action verbs.

-ED Words

These are usually placed before a noun. They show that something received an action. (The action was done to the thing.)

Examples:

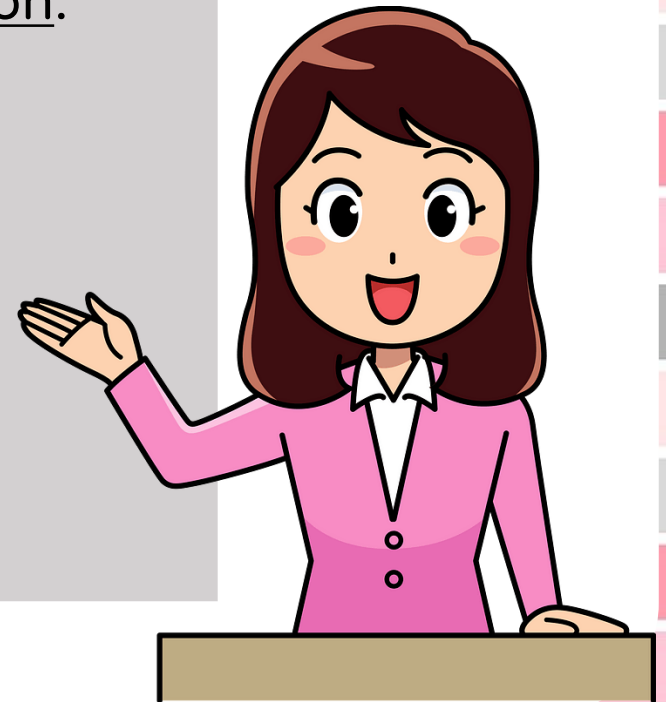

- baked
- fried
- used

-ING Words

These show that someone or something is doing an action.

Examples:

- baking
- frying
- using

-ED Words

something received an action

-ING Words

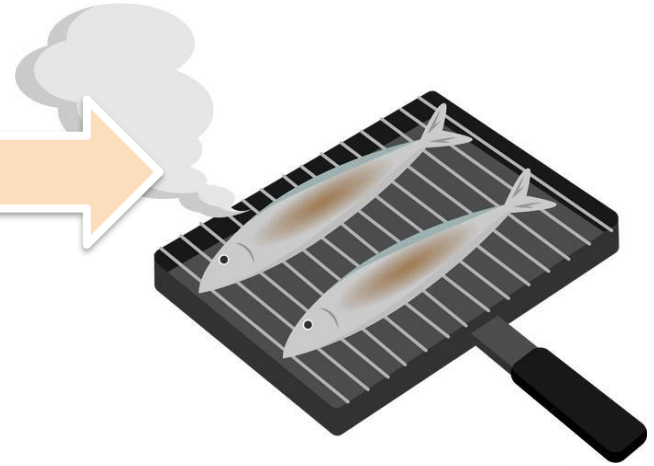

something is doing an action

I got this used shirt from my cousin. He is using different clothes now.

I am packing a lunchbox. I need to bring a packed lunch to school.

My father is grilling fish.
The grilled fish smells yummy!

Mami is baking a cake. She loves making baked goods.

I'm washing the clothes.
Then I'll hang the washed clothes outside.

Let's Answer!

Put the correct words in the blanks.

wrapping wrapped wrapper

1. Kate is _____ a present. This _____ present is for her friend's birthday.

fixes fixing fixed

2. I'm _____ a car. My boss will check the _____ parts soon.

delivered delivers delivering

3. Bob is _____ pizzas.
Each _____ pizza costs 30 dollars.

tired
tiring tried

4. Exercising is healthy, but _____. Sara is always _____ after training at the gym.

frying
fridge
fried

5. Are you _____ some chicken? _____ chicken is delicious!

ANSWER KEY

1. Kate is wrapping a present. This wrapped present is for her friend's birthday.

2. I'm fixing a car. My boss will check the fixed parts soon.

3. Bob is delivering pizzas. Each delivered pizza costs 30 dollars.

4. Exercising is healthy, but tiring. Sara is always tired after training at the gym.

5. Are you frying some chicken? Fried chicken is delicious!